

The Messenger is our biweekly church newsletter which is mailed to members of the FBC family and interested nonmembers. To submit an article for the Messenger, please email your article to Karen Wilson at kwilson@fbcjeff.com or bring it by the church office by noon on Friday. Please let us know if you would like for the article to run for more than one Messenger and we will do our best to accomodate your request.

To view our most recent Messenger online click on the link below. It will open in Adobe Acrobat format which allows you to enlarge the file by clicking on one of the tool bar zoom options for easier reading.

Newsletter Article Submission

Submissions of articles or announcements for the Messenger must be turned in to the Publications Ministry Assistant by

Noon on Friday before the week the Messenger
is published

. Every newsletter item must include the name and phone number of the person submitting the article and should be typed neatly, printed, or submitted electronically via

email

. If your submission needs to be run in more than one edition of the Messenger

, this must also be noted on the submission. Every attempt will be made to include all articles for the duration requested unless there are pressing church announcements that must be made.

Late submissions may be refused. You can view the publications schedule
